For the Library of your Mind

"Another year is dawning, Dear Master, let it be,
In working or in waiting, another year with Thee.
Another year of mercies, of faithfulness and grace;
Another year of gladness in the shining of Thy face.

Another year of service, of witness of Thy love;
Another year of training for holier work above.
Another year is dawning, Dear Master, let it be
On earth, or else in heaven, Another year for Thee!"

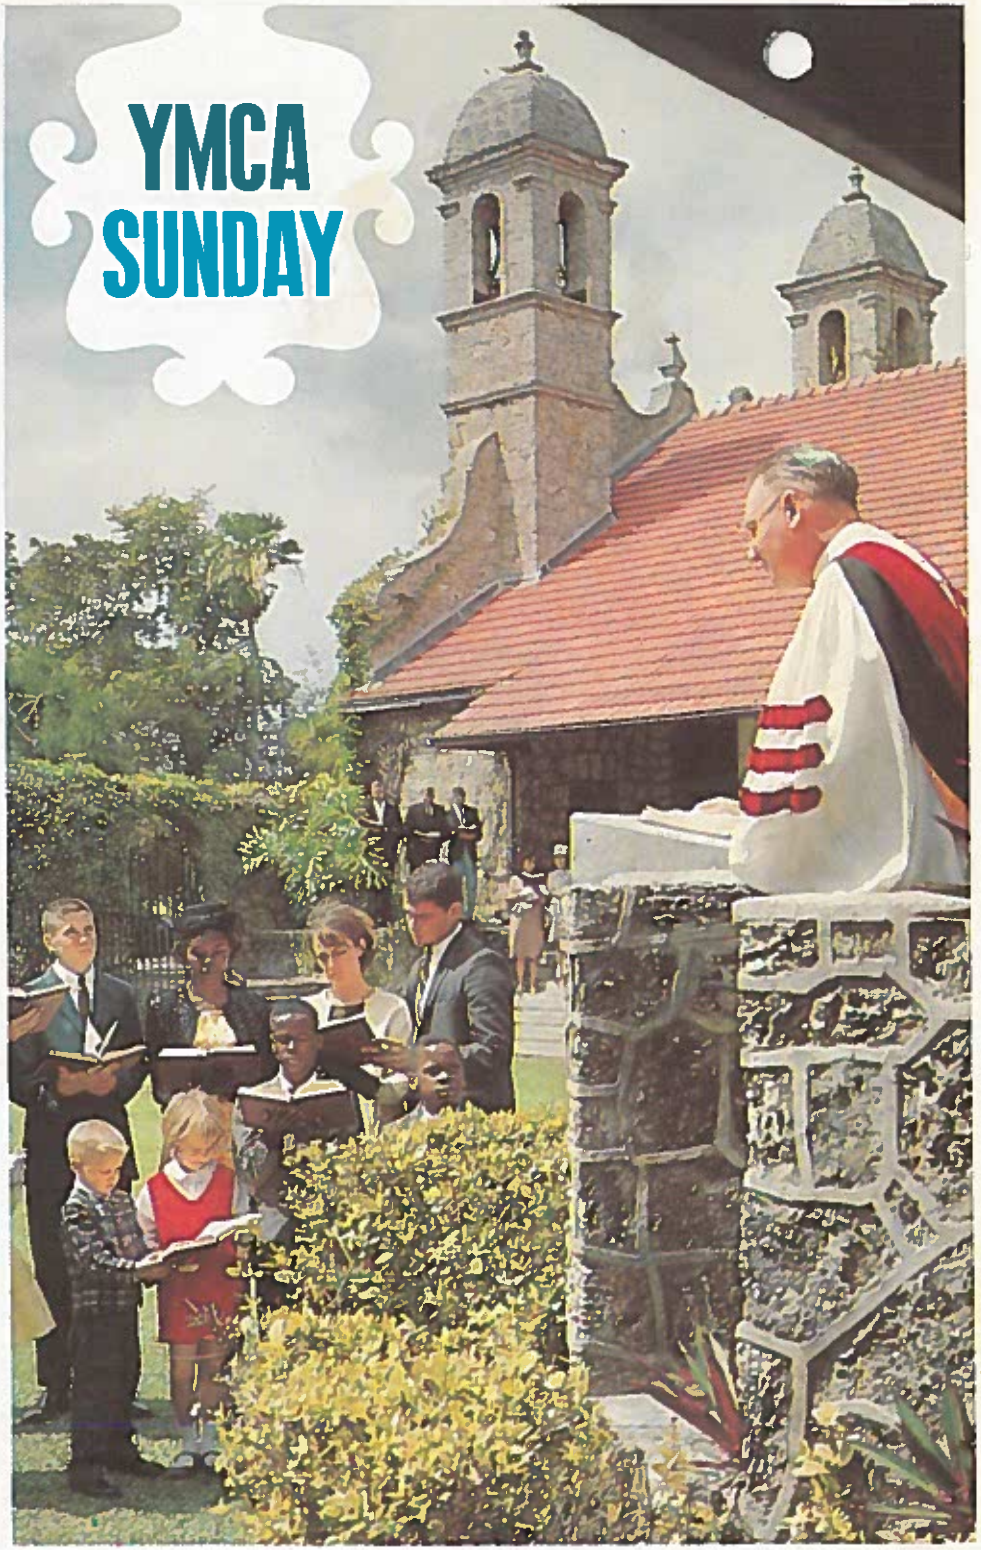
YMCA SUNDAY



On this YMCA Sunday, we are reminded of the words of George Williams, the London dry-goods clerk who founded the Young Men's Christian Association over 120 years ago:

"I believe," he said, "that if earnest, devoted and self-denying men can be found to unite themselves together, God would smile upon their efforts, and much good might be done."

Earnest, devoted and self-denying men (and now, women) find a special appeal in the YMCA, for it combines the energy of youth with the power for good in the teachings of Jesus, and thus extends the work and word of the Christian church.

Many men and women who see an opportunity to further the glory of God through the Young Men's Christian Association are found today in our congregation.

We pray that God will continue to smile upon their efforts, that even much greater good might be done.

are coming!

WORLD WIDE PICTURES presents

the Restless Ones

a penetrating motion picture that dares to provide an answer to youth's relentless search for reality

A frank, sometimes startling portrayal of the thoughts and actions of today's teen agers. Their expressions of pent-up frustration . . . their searchings for approval, discipline and guidance . . . their yearnings for love and understanding . . . their attempts to find security and to express maturity . . . their longings for something real and meaningful.

Perhaps no resource is so mistreated, mismanaged or misunderstood as our young people. Temptations abounding . . . independence unlimited . . . parental irresponsibility . . . confused elders . . . corruption . . . changing concepts of morality and God . . . cold wars and hot. But where a clear-cut call to find real meaning to life? This film goes beyond mere analysis of our times, decrying of our situation and sordid portrayal of our failures. It provides an answer—the answer of faith and commitment. You see it, and urge others to see it. For our young people's sake. For a better world.

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD

"O sacred Head, now wounded,
With grief and shame weighed down;
Now scornfully surrounded
With thorns, Thine only crown,
O sacred Head, what glory,
What bliss till now was Thine!
Yet, though despised and gory,
I joy to call Thee mine.

What Thou my Lord, hast suffered
Was all for sinners gain;
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But Thine the deadly pain.
Lo, here I fall, my Saviour!
Tis I deserve Thy place;
Look on me with Thy favor,
Vouchsafe to me Thy grace.

What language can I borrow
To thank Thee dearest Friend,
For this Thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?
O make me Thine forever;
And should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never
Outlive my love to Thee.

Ascribed to Bernard of Clairvaux

CRISIS in the COUNTRYSIDE

SOIL STEWARDSHIP WEEK · MAY 15-22, 1966

The earth is the Lord's

Consider the countryside –

Infinitely varied, infinitely rich, infinitely demanding, the countryside is a masterpiece of God's creation.

It is the unmatched panorama of the Plains, the Piedmont, and the Prairies, cradling a thousand irreplaceable rivers and valleys.

It is the home of our farms and ranches, our forests and parks — a storehouse of wealth for which there is no substitute.

The countryside is the source of our food, the vast inland reservoir of our water.

It holds our remaining wilderness, spawns streams of darting fish, and spreads welcome haven for nature's wildlife.

It joins ten thousand small watersheds where rains can be managed for the good of man.

The countryside is a treasure in jeopardy. Undervalued and unguarded, it now invites misuse and neglect.

It is a landscape where great original beauty, already scarred, risks further abuse.

It is losing its children who, over the years, fed its strength.

The countryside is the shrinking space between our cities — the target of headlong, unguided expansion.

Though it is a prize to be cherished, no champion rises to speak for it.

In a land of many programs, there is none in its name.

The countryside is the battleground of stewards and wastrels, where men of responsibility must oppose the forces of haste and greed.

In our time it is in our care — to spoil or protect, to waste or develop.

Consider the countryside. Consider it well.

THE LONDON CRUSADE OF BILLY GRAHAM...SOME OBSERVATIONS. London was totally saturated with the Gospel. Never before have a whole people of a nation, at such a critical time in history, had the claims of Jesus Christ presented to them so clearly. It was discovered that some seventy-four ministers in the London area trace their conversion to the London Crusade of 1954. One evening 100,000 people filled Wembley Stadium and an overflow of 8,000 watched on closed circuit T.V. When the appeal was given, 6,000 people responded. This was the largest response to an invitation given anywhere in the world.

TO BE REMEMBERED

1. "While we were yet sinners, Christ died... and rose again for us.
2. He established a "people of His own" in whom He dwells and works.
3. This people is composed of all who truly trust in Him.
4. This is a people, born, not only physically, but born anew with spiritual life from God.
5. Thus, we all begin as spiritual babies..needing nourishment for growth.
6. This nourishment is given by Christ Himself working in you as
   a. The Preaching of the Word is applied to your heart.
   b. As you meditate upon Him in the sacrament at the Lord's Supper.
   c. As you pray in His name.
   d. As you grow strong on the Milk and the Meat in the study of the Word of God.
   e. As you love Him and surrender your life to the Christ who loved and surrendered His life for you.

"A Christian Steward does not dedicate his time, his talent, his treasure that they may become God's.. but because they are God's."

The Rev. Joseph A. Greer

THE CHRISTIAN STEWARD

"Stewardship, as taught by our Lord Jesus Christ, incorporated far more than the giving of one's physical possessions, money. To define Christian stewardship fully is to include most of the graces and virtues of the Christian life. It is .....

...partnership with God in the spirit of Jesus Christ

...dedicating "all I am, all I have, all I know and all I do" to God for His use.

...devoting time, talent, possessions, and life to the doing of God's will.

...working, earning, and spending for the building of Christ's Kingdom in the hearts of men.

...sharing in the Christ-like way of the cross.

...living daily the life of love, service and sacrifice.

...using all the powers of personality and possessions in the service of God and man.

...recognizing that all one's life, all personal abilities, and all material resources constitute a gift from God, which should be used for His glory."

"It is a dark sign when God, the owner, grows poor, while we, God's stewards, grow rich."

THE WESTMINSTER CHOIR holds rehearsal Wednesday evenings at 8 p.m. Mr. Glenn Baer is the director of the choir.

PLEASE CALL THE PASTOR for notices to be placed in the bulletin for Sunday, November 6, by Wednesday evening, November 2.

IN THE NAME OF CHRIST

"No man can grow in grace who, after experiencing the regenerative power of Christ, refuses to spend time at the feet of the Saviour. Prayer - and the Word of God - these are his channels of individual growth. The church - in its worship and evangelistic services, meetings of prayer, and Church School - these are His channels of corporate growth."

THE WORLD CONGRESS ON EVANGELISM met in Berlin from October 26 through November 4. Dr. Billy Graham and Dr. Carl F. H. Henry of "Christianity Today" were the Chairmen. Evangelical leaders came from over 100 countries and numbered over twelve hundred.

World Evangelism

"Never have the people of God faced a more urgent task. The task is the Great Commission...There was a time when the theologian was the Evangelist's greatest ally....we remember Jonathan Edwards, James Denney and Charles Finney...but today many theologians need to be evangelized. They are prime examples of religious confusion, zestfully contradicting each other in the name of theological progress. Some promote secular rather than supernatural perspectives and eagerly undermine the reliability of the Bible. Professedly to make 'Christianity' relevant, these religious revisionists administer 'last rites' to Evangelical Christianity and invite church goers to the latest fashion show of religious speculation. Their theories and fads appear and fade, leaving modern man still in desperate need of spiritual help and salvation."

M Y M A S T E R ' S F A C E

"I had walked life's way with an easy tread;
I had followed where comfort and pleasure led,
Until one day in a quiet place,
I met my Master face to face.

With station and wealth and rank for a goal,
Much thought for the body, but none for the soul,
I had sworn to win in life's mad race--
Till I met my Master face to face.

I had built my castles and reared them high,
Till their domes had touched the blue of the sky;
I had sworn to rule with an iron mace,
Till I met my Master face to face.

I met Him and knew Him, and blushed to see
His eyes full of love were fixed upon me;
And I faltered and fell at His feet that day,
And my castles melted and vanished away;
Melted and vanished, and in their place,
I saw naught else but my Master's face.

My thought is now for the souls of men;
I have lost my life to find it again,
Ever since that day in a quiet place,
I met my Master face to face.

THE HEART OF CHRISTMAS

"Through the years most people gather their own particular cluster of ideas which they may link with the Christmas season. These are good and wholesome ideas for most of us...Christmas carols sounding through the crisp night air, the expectant bustle which precedes a Christmas program, the colorful glow of a lighted tree, the childish anticipation of gift opening time. But, all of these, pleasant as they are, do not begin to touch upon the significance of Christmas...Here Is The Heart of Christmas...it is our awareness of the fact that 'Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners,'

Silent night! holy night!
All is calm, all is bright
Round yon virgin mother and Child,
Holy Infant so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace
Sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night! Holy night!
Shepherds quake at the sight,
Glories stream from heaven afar,
Heavenly hosts sing Allelulia;
Christ the Saviour is born,
Christ the Saviour is born.

Silent Night! Holy Night!
Son of God, Love's pure light,
Radiant beams from thy holy face,
With the dawn of Redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord at Thy birth,
Jesus, Lord at Thy birth.

OUR NEXT EVENING SERVICE brings to us The Rev. Robert L. Briggs, pastor of the Arlington Presbyterian Church in Baltimore. This will be on Sunday evening, January 8, at 7:30 p.m. Nursery will be provided. Bring others with you.

THOUGHTS FOR THIS MORNING

"Christ is our Peace, He is our joy,
He is our refuge from the storm;
If we be hid with Christ in God,
No man on earth can do us harm.
No one can separate us from His love,
or from His care, no matter what the burden,
We can count on Him to share.
Although you may not think so, all things do work for good, if we leave them in His hands and trust Him as we should.
He will keep in perfect peace the mind that's stayed on Him---
So, our Christmas wish is this--
"MAY GOD'S PEACE ABIDE WITHIN."
